CULTURE

Fake Hindu Seer Is Exposed.
Revelations of Girl Victims
Is of a Nature Almost Unbelievable.

Real Fascinator of School
Was the Beautiful
Man, Kay.

Weird, Terrible Orgies Are Told About—Hypnotic Influences.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, May 4.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Full revelations of almost unbelievable character of the Hindu culture school of Pierre Arnold Bernard, in the fine, brown-stone mansion at No. 55 West Seventy-fourth street, were made today
by two girls, who exposed the fake
"Indian Seer."

Gertrude Lee and Zella Hopp told
the story of their amazing experiences without restraint. Mrs. Mary H. Miller, an actress, and an older sister of Gertrude Lee, supplied details that the younger girls had forgotten or were reluctant to reveal.

"Bernard's real name is Coon," said Gertrude Lee, "and he was born in Chicago. He went by the name of 'Oom' and 'Guru,' among those he subdued to his hypnotic influence. He made me a slave here in his flat and house for more than a year, often taking away my clothing and locking me in closets, when I rebelled or came out from under his hypnotic influence and talked of going home."

REAL FASCINATOR.
"But Oom himself was not the fascinator who brought the young girls under his influence. The beautiful man of the establishment was Kay."
"Kay was known on the Pacific Coast under a dozen different names.
He was beautiful, and had such a soulful manner, that women fairly fell head over heels in love with him.
Then he brought them to Oom and by some strange power Oom transferred the power that Kay had over them
to himself."

"It was Kay who brought me under the power of Oom in Seattle more than two years ago. When Oom closed in Levinson's confession, is as follows:

Dispatch.) Harry Levinson, alias Harry Druckenman, who pleaded guilty of being a "white slave" dealer
and who sold the two girls, Ida Greenberg and Gussie Ehrlich, to the special investigator employed by the District Attorney and the grand jury, of which John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is the foreman, tonight made a full confession to Dist. Atty. Whitman.

The confession was made in the presence of Edward Carpel, after Levinson had been warned that his statements might be used against him and that he need not expect leniency because of it.

Warrants for three women and three men, said to be in charge of exchange places where girls are bought and sold,
are expected to result from Levinson's statements.

TOUGH ON PRESIDENT.
Steam Shipwreckers Intend to Expose Chief Executive of Nation
from Union.
CLEVELAND (O.) May 4.—
A demand for Mr. Taft's expulsion from the Steam Shipwreckers Union for attending a boycotted ball game, will be filed tomorrow at the headquarters of the union.

The charges will be presented by the Cleveland Building Trades Association, which inaugurated the boycott on account of alleged employment of non-union labor in building Cleveland's new ball park.

brought me and others to New York
with him the beautiful Kay came with him. He was absolutely under the influence of Peter Coon—there that is his real name, plain Peter Coon. So absorbent was Kay in his submission to Coon, that he once pawned all his clothes for him and went about wrapped in paper."

HINDU CULTURE.
"Well, when we got to New York and started in with our 'tanerid'—that is, the Hindu culture—Kay went out and fascinated the young girls and the young men that we added to our classes. Then when we got 'initiates' into our circle they went out and fascinated others. We called Sanford, who fascinated Miss Hopp, an 'initiate.'"

"As for Oom, he got old men and brought them into our classes. It was from the old men that he got the money, and he certainly did get lots
of it from some of them."

"Also, Oom fascinated some married women and persuaded them to leave their husbands. So we had young girls, married women, young men, middle-aged men and a good many old men
in our classes."

"Our bacchanalian nights were very exclusive and occurred only once a week. Only the old men, who had given as high as $100 for one class day,
were admitted to the bacchanalian nights. There were usually nine or ten girls."

TOO TERRIBLE TO TELL.
"I would not dare tell you what went on at these nights. There was wine and chanting and strange singing, and all the old men and all the young girls were there. They were told that Miss Lee's sister, took up the story
here and said:

"Those bacchanalian nights were the most terrible sort of orgies I have ever heard of. Only young girls or women whose minds were completely ruined by some devil could have taken part in them. They were not only orgies, but more, with all sorts of abandon."

SPID HITS
HEIRESS.
Miss Harriman Engaged to Wed
C. C. Ramsey, Artist Who Designed Her Father's Monument, Fiancee.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, May 4.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) It became known today among the intimate friends of the families of Mrs. E. H. Harriman and Lawrence D. Ramsey that an engagement to marry had been entered into between Miss Mary Harriman and Charles Cary Ramsey.

Miss Mary Harriman is the oldest unmarried daughter of the late E. H.
Harriman. Mr. Ramsey is a member of a Buffalo family well known in that city.

Mrs. E. H. Harriman and her daughter have been living during the winter usually at their town house, Fifth avenue and Seventy-ninth street. They were both in Arden today.

Young Mr. Ramsey has been in New York some time. No formal announcement of the engagement is ready yet.

SECOND DAUGHTER.
Miss Mary Harriman is the second daughter of the late Edward H. Harriman, and is one of six children who were born to one of the largest fortunes in the world. The railway magnate left all his property, real and personal, to his wife, and she was the only person mentioned in his will. The bulk of the estate, nevertheless, will,
in time, naturally fall to the children.

Cornelius, Mrs. Harriman's first daughter, is the wife of Robert Livingston Gerry. Miss Mary Harriman is the second daughter, and Miss Carol,
the third, was introduced to society in New York last year. There are two sons, W. Averell Harriman and Roland
Harriman, who is 13 years old.

Miss Mary, who was made an executor of the immense estate left by her father, has inherited a large portion of the good deal of his capability,
when, in the month following his death, she and her mother decided that the girl herself had better take personal charge of the operation of the vast estate.

EXECUTIVE ABILITY.
She had always been interested in sports and in the natural life of outdoor excitement and pleasure which the American girl leads, when she has opportunity. But now she has shown that she possesses a taste of a no mean order for executive work on a large scale. On October 23, she formally took charge of the Arden farm's operation and took over the management of the 4,000-acre of the Harriman Orange county farms. And since that time she has actually been running them herself.

Charles Cary Ramsey is a son of Lawrence D. Ramsey of Buffalo, N. Y.
The family is wealthy and socially prominent, and has lived in Buffalo for a long time. Young Mr. Ramsey is little less than 30 years old, and has shown a taste for the art of sculpture. He studied for a time at Paris at the Beaux des Arts.

Following his return to this country he has continued his work, and has had a number of groups in exhibition which have been well received.
He is a splendid horseman, an expert polo player, and has won many prizes and trophies on his skill at horse sports. Mr. Ramsey is a model which was accepted for the monument of Mr. Harriman at Arden.

Miss Mary Harriman, daughter of late railroad magnate, who is to marry sculptor who designed monument in her father's honor.

STRAIGHT TALK.
PRESIDENT ASSAILS
CANT OF DEMAGOGUES.
Deplores Unjust Attacks on Men in Public Life and Demands Square Deal, Not for Self, But for All.
Discusses Railroad Bill.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
ST. LOUIS, May 4.—President Taft's five days' trip to the Middle West ended here today, and he left late tonight for Washington, where he is scheduled to arrive early Friday morning.

It remained for St. Louis to give Mr.
Taft the heartiest demonstration of his present journey.

The city was gaily decorated and there were cheering throngs wherever the President went. Several times his motor car was stopped to receive bouquets. These Mr. Taft later sent to St.
Luke's Hospital and then to the Home for Incapables.

The apparent warmth of the reception here seemed to affect the President, and when at the luncheon of the Business Men's League late in the afternoon, President Walker Hill praised him for appointing Messrs.
Curtis and Hughes to the Supreme Court, Mr. Taft launched into a vigorous speech paying his respects to Mr.
Bryan for his reported criticism of Gov. Hughes.

DEMANDS JUSTICE.
He decried the "cant of the demagogue," and the "disposition of public journalists," to make unjust charges against men in public life.

"All appeal for justice and a square deal," said the President, "not especially for myself, for indeed I am in a position where I can get along without it better than the President of the United States. I am appealing for justice in dealing with all classes."

Senate Republicans Get Together to Save President Taft's Programme.
Aldrich Is Leader of Movement to Defeat Democrats
and Near-Democrats.
Loyal Members Will Fight
Battle Royal for Taft Administration.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, May 4.—Through the formation today of an organization, which its leaders claim represents a clear majority of the Senate, and to be made up wholly of regular Republicans, a movement was started to settle whether the Senate shall remain conservative, become radical, or be thrown into political chaos, as far as concerns any coherent policy on the administration programme.

Senators Aldrich called the regular Republicans together and confronted them with a grim description of the possible political effect of their apparent defeat at the hands of the insurgent Republicans and Democrats in the fight over the traffic agreement section of the administration railroad bill.

He asked his associates whether they were ready to submit to domination by such a combination. Any such surrender he warned them, meant the failure of the Taft policies and downfall of conservative control, not only in Congress, but in the Republican party generally.

MUST GET TOGETHER.
Some one reminded Senator Aldrich
that Senators there gathered together
were not in agreement on all points, whereupon he replied that must get together and agree to stand together, and let the details be secondary. Otherwise, he said, Congress would adjourn without accomplishing a single item of the Taft programme.

The entire issue of the conference
was belittled toward the insurgents.
This was the dominant note:
"Let us get together and stand as a unit against every insurgent proposition. If the insurgents propose anything good, we'll take it over bodily and put it through as our own. If they propose anything bad, we'll stamp it out."

It was stated President Taft had been kept fully advised of the situation, and was entirely in sympathy with the plan and virtually pledged to
it. It was said in behalf of the conference that while the measures reported to were heroic, they were necessary in defense of the administration and the integrity of the Republican party and as a means to any effective legislation whatever.

ALDRICH IS LEADER.
To Senator Aldrich was given the leadership of the new movement.
Aldrich left late today for Rhode Island, and will not return before Tuesday. The plan meanwhile is to "start time" and "hold the fort." There will be many conferences at the White House and elsewhere to perfect the militant plan. The intention is to avoid rest votes on any subject of importance until next week.

Every hour brings additional evidence of the widening breach between the regulars and the insurgents in both houses. Conservative Republican leaders with hardly an exception confess that in neither house is there a coherent majority. Even those unfamiliar as yet with the plans of the new Senate organization seem to be awaiting the return of President Taft to see what, if anything, he can do to get at least some remnants of his programme through Congress. As matters stand tonight the prospect from the Republican point of view is anything but alluring.

WARFARE GROWS FIERCER.
The situation has developed almost without halt from the beginning of the last session, when the warfare began in the House over the Speaker'ship and the adoption of the rules. Some locate the beginning of the split as far back as the Fifty-ninth Congress, and trace it down to the suddenly widening breach of last year's tariff session;
since when there has been little seem-ance of harmony on the majority side, especially in the House.

ROYAL HONOR SHOWN
ROOSEVELT BY KING.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
CHRISTIANIA, May 4.—King Haakon VII and Queen Maud were first to greet ex-President Roosevelt on his arrival here today.

The streets of Christiania were bright with decorations, and almost every one is wearing an American flag.
Roosevelt's march, Roosevelt photographs, and compilations of Roosevelt's sayings are being sold in the shops and on the highways.

This evening the King and Queen gave a dinner at the palace in honor of their American guests. More than 200 eminent personages, including the Premier and Cabinet ministers, political leaders, literary people and financiers were present.

When the dinner had advanced to the fourth course, the King arose and all the guests stood.

IN NORWAY.
"It is with great pleasure," said
the King, "that I welcome you, Mr.
and Mrs. Roosevelt, in the name of the Queen and myself, and extend to you our hospitality. I do not speak in my own name alone, but am convinced that it is in the name of all Norwegians. The reception given you today will convince you of the truth of my words."

"I drink to the United States, and I drink a toast to the health of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt."

The company remained standing,
while the ex-President responded.
"It is a particular pleasure for me to be in Norway," he said, "and I have been deeply impressed with my generous reception. Norwegians have made such good citizens in the United States that I once remarked to a group of traveling Norwegians that I rather grudged it that they had left anybody in Norway."

"The Norwegians in America love
the land of their birth and they love
the country of their adoption. A man can love his wife all the better if he loves his mother a great deal."

REGULATOR OF RATES BY RAIL.

Government Steamship Line on Pacific.

Passage of Flint-McLachlan Bill Is Urged.

Seattle and Tacoma Man Has Committee's Ears.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—W. E. Meers, representing commercial interests of Seattle and Tacoma, urged favorable action of the Flint-McLachlan bill to establish a government steamship line on the Pacific Coast at a hearing of the House Committee on Interstate Commerce today. Mr. Meers argued that government steamships would do more to maintain reasonable rates on transcontinental railroads than anything the Interstate Commerce Commission could do.

"The greatest regulator of railroad rates that the government could establish," said Mr. Meers, "would be to put on a government-owned line of steamers to ply between Pacific Coast ports and the western terminus of the Panama Railroad, and later through the Panama Canal, in connection with the government steamship line now in operation on the Atlantic."

"You maintain the Interstate Commerce Commission at a cost of $1,000,000 a year to regulate rates, but these ships would do more to maintain reasonable rates on transcontinental railroads than anything the commission could do."

Mr. Meers said the Southern Pacific Railroad owned more than 50 per cent of the stock of the Pacific Mail, which he said was a sufficient reason for the latter company to make an active effort to handle business via Panama in competition with the transcontinental railroads.

Everything, said, was done to discourage Pacific Coast shippers from sending their freight by way of Panama. He pointed out that because of the miserable service on the Pacific side, the government-owned ships on the Atlantic side were compelled to run empty from Panama to New York, when, if the Pacific line were in existence, they might return loaded with profitable freight.

The witness also said the government was buying many supplies for the canal, which had to be shipped by rail across the country from the Pacific Coast to New York and then trans-shipped by water to Panama.

Chairman Mann said that the bill was not true, but Mr. Meers insisted that much Pacific Coast freight for Panama went by the long and expensive rail and water route.

CALIFORNIA MAY SELL HAY.

War Department Needs Four Thousand Tons in Philippines Representative.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, May 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] California hay dealers have long been crying break into the government supply business. The War Department in the Philippines requires a large quantity of hay, which is all bought in this country. Most of this hay has come from Kansas, but reports received from the Philippines recently indicate that this hay, known as upland hay, is not satisfactory. On the other hand, California hay has been tested and is reported as satisfactory.

It happens that the bids for hay from Seattle are much higher than those for California hay and Representative Kahn has interested the Quartermaster-General in the matter. He hopes that the entire 4000 tons authorized for will be bought in California.

SATISFIED.

MISS MORGAN

ONLY "RUBBERS."

SHE SEES SOME PRACTICAL POLITICS IN DENVER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

DENVER, May 4.—An illustration of practical politics with herself as a storm center, was given today to Miss

Anne Morgan, daughter of J. P. Morgan,

who came to Denver to study

woman suffrage on its own stamping grounds.

Miss Morgan had agreed to address

a mass meeting of the Women's Public Service League to ratify the candidate of women for election

commissioner, tonight. It was understood the meeting was to be non-partisan.

Correctly anticipating that this would draw a tremendous crowd, the Municipal

Ownership faction of the league

captured the meeting.

Miss Morgan, not relishing the idea of being the drawing card at a meeting of the principal object of which was to lay corporate taxes on which her father is the generally accepted personification,

declined to be introduced,

but compromised by occupying a box

in the audience from which she heard

a number of speakers voice bitter

protests against corporation methods.

Miss Morgan spent the morning in the juvenile court, and in the afternoon

made an inspection of the State

Reformatory School, the Detention

School and the Detention

School, and her mother left for

where prisoners of the juvenile court

are kept.

In the evening she addressed a meeting of newboys in the juvenile court.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC DEALS.

Holdings of Oil Properties in Texas

and Mexico Are Reported to Be Sold.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AUSTIN (Tex.), May 4.—[Exclusive

Dispatch.] In confirmation of published reports from New York that the Southern Pacific interests are about to dispose of their holdings in Texas,

California and Mexico, it was learned today on trustworthy authority that

John W. Gates and associates are negotiating for the purchase of the oil

lands, and storage stocks of the Rio

Grande Oil Company, the Southern Pacific Texas concern. The same report says S. Pearson & Son, limited, will take over the East Coast Oil Company,

a Southern Pacific concern.

Gates and associates are preparing to become a more active competitor

against H. Clay Pierce and associates

in the refining oil trade of Texas, while the purchase of the Mexico Oil holdings

by S. Pearson & Son will give the latter stronger position to fight the Waters-Pierce Oil Company in Mexico.

The so-called "Bar and Bottle" bill, which prohibits the sale of liquor by the glass and bottle over the same bar, has been signed by Gov. Draper of Massachusetts, but the effect of the measure will not be felt until a year

from this time, as all liquor licenses in the State are dated May 1.

GILLET BOOSTS IN CHICAGO.

meeting where $400,000 was raised to bring the exposition to celebrate the opening of the Panama canal to San Francisco, Governor Gillett of California today en route to Washington where they are due at 4:00 p.m.

tomorrow. The purpose of the trip is to gain Federal sanction of the exposition. Governor Gillett in arguing in favor of San Francisco, declares it would lead many persons to take the trip from the East via the new canal.

were killed, five others were seriously injured and eleven received minor cuts

early today when a freight car on the Ohio Electric railway collided

head on with a passenger car on a hill

just south of the city.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, May 4.—A case which in many ways eclipses that of the Siamese twins was brought to light today at the University of Chicago. Dr.

Martin Peterson died of an operation

at the Norwegian hospital. The operation disclosed the fact that a child

was in the womb of his mother at the time of his death. Six doctors beside those WHITEWASH.

ANGELS GET
GOOSE EGGS.Unable to Score a Run Off
Slivers Henley.Daley's Effort to Catch a Fly
Ends Disastrously.Many Good Fielding Stunts Seen by Fans.

San Francisco, 3; Los Angeles, 0.
Daley tried to make a grand stand catch yesterday in center field, and the result was that the Angels dropped the first game of the series to the Seals before a large and interested crowd of fans that spent the greater part of the afternoon howling at poor Umpire Van Halteren.

Still, it was not exactly Daley's fault that the locals lost for Thorsen was wild enough in the sixth inning to walk two men, and then to let himself be worked for two sacrifices that sent in another run.

Even though the locals lost the fans saw enough fancy fielding to make up for the defeat, for there were a number of stunts by the infielders that were worth the price. Roth made a beautiful running catch of Vitt's foul against the bleacher fence in the ninth inning; Tennant grabbed a high throw in his right hand of Mohler's assist of Delmas's grounder in the eighth, and Dillon also made a wonderful stop of a bad throw by Thorsen on Tennant's sacrifice in the sixth. It was a cracking good fielding game, notwithstanding the five errors, but only one of these counted.

Daley furnished the incident of the game by being thrown out of the field in the last of the sixth inning for howling over a strike that Van Halteren called on him. Daley left the plate in a huff and kept up a line of talk after he got to the bench, and kept at it long enough to have the ump hear what he said. Wheeler took his place.

Speaking about pitching, Henley and Thorsen were there with all kinds of bells, and four hits were made off each, and none of these were in the same inning. The locals got both on a man to third base, and but three to second, and it takes real heaving for that kind of business. The Seals had a little better luck as their score showed.

The Seals came very near to a score in the first inning, for there were three men on bases with no one out. Two of these were caught at the plate, and the sixth one forced a man at second and the agony ended without damage. Tennant opened the fourth with a grounder to Delmas, which was juggled, and then Vitt was walked. Vitt got away at first base and was caught off the base by a straight advance by Mohler to Dillon. Then Rodie hit a short fly to center, and when Daley ran in to get it he was short and the ball just touched his fingers and rolled far into center field, Tennant scoring and Rodie going to third. A moment later Rodie was doubled at third on Berry's foul fly to Roth.

In the sixth Thorsen became wild and walked both Mohler and Melchior. Tennant sacrificed, advancing both men and Vitt worked the squeeze play, which would have failed had Thorsen thrown the ball to the plate instead of to first base. For this he was called a bonehead by the rabid element of the fans.

After this there was nothing doing for the Seals and the locals were never dangerous for they could do nothing with Henley.

CRABILL AND GOFF CATCH SEASON'S BIGGEST STRING.

"Sim" Crabill and His Catch of Surf Fish, showing eleven of the string of twenty-seven caught by him and R. B. Goff at Huntington Beach yesterday, the lot weighing fifty-one and a half pounds, the best haul of the season.

"SIM" CRABILL, foreman of The Times' mechanical department, and R. B. Goff, also employed by The Times, caught the biggest string of surf fish of the season, yesterday, at Huntington Beach.

The surf in the catch numbered twenty-seven, with a few perch, and other small fry, the total weighing fifty-one and a half pounds. All were caught in about two hours' time, with clam bait.

Crabill says they struck one of those streaks of luck which come to anglers about once a season. At the Twenty-third street station there is a pier which is closed to the fishermen because a wave motor is being tried out on the end. Just outside the pier is a sand bar which shifts daily, and beyond which a deep hole forms which harbors the surf fish.

Yesterday Crabill and Goff found this hole, and the hole beyond within 100 feet of the beach and the first cast resulted in the capture of a three-pound surf. Thereafter the two anglers kept their reels singing in sending the lead to deep water and they had excellent sport until the tide and changing currents shifted the bar further out into the ocean.

Crabill's biggest fish weighed four pounds, and he caught four others which weighed three pounds or slightly over. Goff took three which weighed three pounds or over. The entire catch averaged nearly two pounds to the fish; Goff getting fifteen and Crabill twelve.

UTTERLY FAIL
IN AGREEMENT.Johnson and Berger Farther
Apart Than Ever.Johnson Objects to Smith on His Past Record.Negro Rejects Eyton as He Lives in Jeff's Town.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It may have been a press-agent stunt, but Johnson and Berger utterly failed to agree on a referee for the big fight today and, at Johnson's suggestion, Tex Rickard gave them ten days more time to reach an agreement.

Incidentally, it was shown that Berger, acting for Jeffries, had been ordered to reject both Jack Welch and Eddie Graney, apparently for no better reason than because Johnson strongly favored them. This made the big negro angry, and he declared there would be no fight if a referee of his selection was used prominently in the fight.

Johnson named Jack Welch and Eddie Graney and said either man would satisfy any ring fan, as such was capable and square.

Berger refused to consider these names and he submitted five—Eddie Smith of Oakland, Charlie Eyton of Los Angeles, Johnny Herge of San Francisco, Supervisor and former lightweight fighter, Billy Roche, and Wanda, Olympic champion. Johnson gave his reasons for refusing these, Berger replied that Johnson could name any competent sportswoman outside the two he had named. Indeed, the manager of Jeffries intimated strongly that there would be no fight if Tex Rickard, particularly wanted either Welch or Graney.

It looks as though some eastern referee will be sent upon, as Californians have all been rejected. Tex Rickard is plainly averse to naming a referee in a fight with Jeffries, the fighters should select a man.

HIS REASONS.
Johnson's objection to Smith was based on his declaration that Smith gave him the wrong end of a decision in a fight with Hank Griffin, in Oakland, a few years ago.

The negro refused to consider Charlie Eyton, a Los Angeles, on account of his being a citizen of Jeffries's home town.

While Charlie White of New York, who is a fighter with Jeffries, as a possibility, was not even mentioned, the outcome of the conference is thought to have left the possibility of a fight with Jeffries open to an eastern man, as Graney and Welch both come from the other side of the Atlantic.

Johnson announced today that he probably will begin training a week from Sunday.

"Five or six weeks of hard work is all I need," he said. "I am practically in perfect condition now and a little fast work with my sparring partners will bring me up to the mark. I need a long period of training, as I have been out of condition, but I will be in pretty good trim and it will be a matter of time before I will be myself by months of hard work."

While Johnson's big red automobile has become a familiar sight in his whirlwind trips about the city, the colored fighter has as yet made no excursions along the primeval path since coming to San Francisco, and the promoters of the fight feel confident the big black moon will be in excellent condition for the mill.

BETTING CHANGES.
JOHNSON MAKES IMPRESSION.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The press in San Francisco is full of bets on the Jeffries-Johnson fight. Johnson has changed local betting on the fight between the present heavyweight and Jim Jeffries, at least to the extent that Jeffries is now quoted as 15-to-7 favorite, instead of 10-to-5, at which price the Californian opened.

Tom Corbett announces that considerable bets have been placed at 10 to 1, the fact that it has all been covered and the Jeffries money he is now handling was received with instructions to get out of baseball. No changes are made that by the time the negro has opened up his training work that the price will be 10 to 1. So far the betting on the Paris match has been desultory.

PAPKE DISABTIFIED.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Billy Papke has decided to leave Rowardennan at the end of this week and take up training camp at Joe Miller's, out training camp on Mission Road. This move was undoubtedly made at the instance of Jim Coffroth, who is a firm believer in the principle of having his fighter where the public can get a peek at him.

Furthermore, Papke is deriving little good from the mountain camp, due to the fact that there is no one down there who can give him a thorough work-out except Jeffries and Jeff. At the present time, therefore, Billy will move up to the city next Sunday morning, and Monday will find him hard at work in Colma.

JEFF IS HAPPY.
HIS WIFE VISITS CAMP.
REX LOMOND, May 5.—Jim Jeffries hurried back to his training camp here at noon today, bringing with him from Oakland his wife, who is recovering from an operation.

Jeffries did not visit his training camp during his little holiday, preferring to let Jack Johnson and the promoters of the fight squabble over the referee. However, he was at the station to greet Jeffries and his wife.

Mrs. Jeffries walked to the camp, leaving the two big men looking very pale and weak as a result of her illness and presenting a strong contrast to the two big athletes at the camp and the Jeffries cottage was a man of letters.

May sawers in honor of her return. Jeffries appeared as happy as a boy to have his wife with him again. As soon as he saw she was installed comfortably he took the train for Santa

DRAGGING IT OUT.
Crus, determined to make the most of his day of rest by taking a hot salt water bath at the ocean resort. Farmer Burns accompanied him. They returned in time for evening dinner.

The work of the training camp will be taken up in all its rigor again tomorrow morning.

Jeffries was pleased today to hear that Frank Gotch, the champion heavyweight wrestler, will join the camp in another week. "With all his strength and skill he will be a great help to me in training," said Jeffries.

With Jack Jeffries coming shortly, the camp outfit will be almost complete before the middle of the month. Jim Corbett will be the last man to join Jeffries. He is expected about the first of June. As far as actual boxing goes, however, it does not look as though Corbett would have a chance to be of great assistance. Jeffries plans to do very little boxing during the last three weeks of training.

FLYNN BACKS DOWN!
MUST BE A MISTAKE.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
BOSTON, May 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, after seeing his namesake, "Porky" Flynn, of Boston, perform in the ring, called off the bout with the Bostonian today. The men were to fight in this city on Tuesday. The Westerner saw "Porky" in a bout last night with Harris. Porky showed up strong and clever that Jim could not fight.

Tonight while in his training quarters at Northboro, he said: "I am not afraid of 'Porky,' but I don't want to meet him at this time. His backdown has done him no good in this section."

ALL FOR LOVE.
SCHOOL BOYS FIGHT.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
SAN MATEO, May 4.—Stripped to the waist and using bare fists, David Caldwell and Otto George, two freshmen of the local high school, fought an eight-round battle yesterday in the basement of the school. Caldwell finally winning by a knockout. The boys are said to be rivals in love and a bit of a feud between them resulted in the encounter.

The blow that lost George the fight rendered him unconscious, it is reported, and it was not until after the referee counted the fatal ten, before he recovered. George, it is said, has been taken to a regular fight next Saturday.

LONGEST DAYS RUN.
OTTAWA (Kan.) May 4.—The longest day's run of the Golden Olden path-finding car was made today between State agents and Ottawa, 170 miles. The car came by way of Newton and Emporia, and scored excellent roads.

More Denunciations.
SEATTLE, May 4.—The Northwest Association of Congregational churches adopted a resolution at the closing session of the conference today, denouncing the proposed Jeffries-Johnson prize fight as tending to debase public morality and urging the members of the congregation to join with the church people of California in protesting to the authorities of that state against permitting the fight to take place.

President's Tribute.
ST. LOUIS, May 4.—President Taft today paid a tribute to baseball. "The game of baseball," he said, "is a clean, straight game, and it summons to its presence everybody who enjoys clean, straight athletics. It furnishes amusement to thousands and thousands of people, and it is a game, first, because I enjoy it, and second, because if by the presence of the temporary Chief Magistrate such healthy amusement can be encouraged, I want to encourage it."

Kling Signs Contract.
CHICAGO, May 4.—John Kling signed a three-year contract with the Chicago National club in President Murphy's office here today, "subject to the terms of the National Commission's ruling." Murphy said tonight. This means that Kling will get $1000 for the season. In addition, he was given a check for his share of the $100,000 money President Murphy presented his players at the close of the 1909 season.

Butler Released.
Manager Henry Berry of the Los Angeles team gave Pitcher Elmer Butler his unconditional release yesterday morning and now like is free to sign with any club. He should not be long without a position, for he is a good writer. Berry's only reason for letting him go is that he has too many heavies and may not even use Hoop when the return and now like is free to sign with any club. Berry's only reason for letting him go is that he has too many heavies and may not even use Hoop when the return and now like is free to sign with any club.

Grass Diamond Sure.
The final papers will be signed this week giving the local ball teams of the Pacific Coast League the control of the Chutes Park ball grounds for the term of ten years. This means that there will be a grass diamond for the ball players next year, the intention being to use the wall back of the Chutes Park to irrigate the grass with.

Stockholders' Meeting.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Angel City Baseball Club is called for May 16 at 11 o'clock in the morning. No changes are contemplated in the management of the club and Henry Berry does not intend to get out of baseball, notwithstanding the report that he is.

ANTI-BETTING
BILL PASSES.

Putting on the Brakes on New York Racing.

Bitter Contest Ends With Hughes Victorious.

Racing Men Say Statute Can Be Circumvented.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) May 4.—By a decisive vote the Senate today passed the Anti-Betting bill, which makes the present prohibition against bookmaking on race tracks apply to all states where the law is in force.

The bill, which was introduced by Sen.
Hughes, of New York, and which has been the subject of a long and bitter contest,
was passed by a vote of 65 to 25.

The bill provides that no person shall bet on any race or event, or receive or pay for any bet, in any state where the law is in force.

The bill also provides that no person shall keep a place for betting, or receive or pay for any bet, in any state where the law is in force.

The bill was passed after a long and bitter contest, in which the opponents of the bill were defeated.

The bill is now being considered by the House, and it is expected that it will be passed there also.

The bill is a landmark in the history of the fight against betting, and it is hoped that it will put an end to the practice.

In the Beautiful Southwest
Buy Now at Opening Prices

You will be glad to know that it is now possible to secure a fine lot in the Southwest—inside the city, in the five-cent fare district—at a moderate price. I have just placed Arlington Square on the market. It is superbly located, with good car service. It looks off toward the beautiful Hollywood hills, and it's right between two populous districts—a piece of land that has been held as acreage for years. Once selling begins, prices will increase. The time to buy for profit, of course, is NOW.

Lots $625.00 Up, $25.00 Cash, $25.00 Monthly

Arlington Square is at the corner of Santa Monica Avenue and Arlington Street. Second and Third Avenues run through it north and south. 38th and 40th Streets intersect it east and west.

The Jefferson Street car runs almost to it. The Redondo line, Inglewood division (yellow cars) will run to and possibly through Arlington Square. The fare on all lines is five cents.

Here is the place for the man of moderate means to have his home, where careful restrictions, that are not burdensome, will protect him in his investment.

Improvements include graded and oiled streets, cement walks and curbs, wide parking places to large shade trees, gas, electricity—and all city conveniences.

As I have said, the district just south is fast building up; a little to the north is the West Adams section with its beautiful homes. You will see that an opportunity it is to buy in such a place at a low price. You can do this now—later it will be another story.

Curing Catarrh Accept Our Advice and Try this Remedy at Our Risk.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membrane. The mucous membrane is, one may say, the interior lining of the body. Catarrh therefore may exist in any part of the system.

When the catarrhal poison attacks
the mucous membrane, inflammation
and congestion are produced and nature falls to throw off the accumulated poisons. The organ which has been afflicted ceases to perform its proper function as nature intended it should.
The result is, complication upon complication, which may lead to other even more serious afflictions.

We honestly believe Resall Muc-Tone will do wonders toward overcoming catarrh. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician who made a long study of catarrh, and his great success with this remedy was an enviable one.

We want you if you are a sufferer from catarrh in any form, to give Resall Muc-Tone a thorough trial.
Use it with regularity and persistency
for a reasonable time, then if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us,
and without question or formality we will hand back to you every cent you paid us. This is certainly the fairest offer that anyone could make and should attest our sincerity of purpose.
It comes in two sizes, prices 5 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at The Owl Drug Co., Inc., 1

KATE BENDER
FOUND DEAD.

Member of Notorious Murder
Family Dies on Coast.

Fled to California from Kansas to Escape Arrest.

Confessed to Friend; Doctor Recognized Woman.

RIO VISTA, May 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] According to Dr. H. H. Endicott of Caldwell, Stanislaus county, and Jack Collins of Rio Vista, a woman known here for nearly thirty years as Mrs. Gavin and Mrs. Peters, was really Kate Bender, of the notorious family of murderers whose many crimes in Kansas in the seventies started the whole country.

Mrs. Peters was found dead in her house in the outskirts of Rio Vista Monday evening, having died a week or ten days before from natural causes. She had conducted a house of ill repute for several years, and lately had been living alone.

When the house was broken open her dead body was found in advanced decomposition. When the death of Mrs. Peters became known the story leaked out that she was Kate Bender, a member of the family that slew numbers of men for their money and for the lust of killing. A reward of $5000 was offered for her capture by Kansas authorities.

Mrs. Peters became sick eight or ten years ago, and she became convinced she was about to die. She made complete confession to Jack Collins, who was her intimate friend. She told him her part in the murders committed in the Bender home at Cherryvale, Kan., along in the early sixties was to make love to men who were to be murdered. She escaped when the authorities arrived, and reached Chicago, afterward going to New York, sailing from there for a trip around Cape Horn to San Francisco. For some time she was a nurse under Dr. C. C. O'Donnell in San Francisco, and afterward married John Gavin, a well-known dealer and sealer.

Thirty years ago she came here with Gavin to live. Ten or fifteen years ago they separated, and she secured a divorce, afterward embarking on a life of shame and occupying a house on a knoll above a mill below town. After she made her confession to Jack Collins, the woman recovered her health and became fearful lest she might not keep the promise she had made to preserve her secret until her death. She even plotted to kill him at one time.

Dr. H. H. Endicott, who was in Kansas at the time the murders were committed, knew the Bender family. He thought he recognized her, and he secured some one he had known, but not until he was called to her house to attend her did he solve the mystery. He saw there the photo of her in her younger days and recognized it as a picture of Kate Bender. He did not expose her.

LATEST REVISION NEAREST TO PERFECT OF ANY.

Admires President Taft, But Says
He Works Too Hard in Trying to Please Everybody—His Greatest Fault—Roosevelt Will Get Whatever He Wants—His Way.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
NEW YORK, May 4.—Before sailing today for his summer home in Scotland, Andrew Carnegie had a few words to say about the tariff. "In my opinion, greater progress had been made by the latest tariff revision toward the perfect tariff than ever before," he observed.

"Of course, it is hard to please everybody, and I can only express my opinion by quoting something I read on a postal card lately: 'Let the scowlers scowl, let the howlers howl, and the politicians go to it. The country's all right and I know it.'"

Mr. Carnegie highly complimented President Taft, saying that he was a model President, but that he worked too hard.

"He wants to please everybody," he said, "and in that lies his greatest fault. There is no comparison with the work of the previous administration. One did the spade work and the present administration is sowing the seeds. As to Mr. Roosevelt's plans, I do not know what he wants, but he has a way of getting anything he does want, and I presume when he returns he will obtain whatever he is looking for."

WIRE RESPONSIBILITY.

That Feature of Bucket Shop Investigations Concluded Before the Federal Grand Jury.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, May 4.—The investigation into the New York end of the wire responsibility for bucket shop stock quotations by bucket shops was concluded today before the Federal Grand Jury.

Should a presentment against the Western Union Telegraph Company be voted it would be several days before an indictment could be returned.

The indictments in the bucket shop cases are being prepared in the Department of Justice, where it is understood, additional conspiracy indictments which grew out of the grand jury's recent investigation preceding the taking up of the wire responsibility feature of the inquiry on file.

CRIME AND STRONG DRINK.

Charity Association Authorities Assert Alcohol is Responsible to Very

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
DENVER, May 4.—Representatives of the Colorado State Prison Association, the Denver Associated Charities, and the Jewish Relief Society, attending the semi-annual conference of the Colorado State Board of Charities and Corrections, yesterday stated unqualifiedly that a very small per cent.
of crime and poverty could be laid to drink.

Their statements came in reply to a direct question by Rev. Father William O'Ryan, of St. Leo's Catholic Church.

While all could not give statistics,
Rabbi W. S. Freedman, of Temple
Emmanuel, who was presiding, speaking for the Associated Charities, stated that 1-10 per cent. is the ratio of alcoholic causes of poverty; the association deals with W. E. Collett, secretary of the Prison Association, declared that the percentage of crime caused by strong drink was "very low."

WORTH WHILE.

OIL ECONOMICAL
FOR BIG LINER.CUNARD DIRECTORS FIGURE ON FUEL COST.

The Saving Would Amount to $600, 000 for Each Round Trip Between Liverpool and New York—Cuts Wage Charges and Gives More Carrying Capacity.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, May 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In ordering a new liner ranking with the Lusitania and Mauretania,
the Cunard directors have been advised that by using oil fuel they would effect a saving of $12,000 every round trip.

The Lusitania consumes 5500 tons of coal each trip to New York, which costs $5850. She carries 122 fremen, whose wages represent $2300. It is calculated that if oil is substituted she will require only 2300 tons, costing $4295,
and but twenty-seven fremen, whose wages would be $230, or $4521 in all.
The cash saved by using oil would be $1151, but she would have additional earning power if the oil fuel could be carried in the double bottom, and the space occupied by the coal bunkers utilized for 5500-ton cargo, at say, $1 per ton, while 280 extra passengers at $1 each, estimated profit, would yield $508. Therefore, the company could save $7151 on one trip from Liverpool to New York, the specific cost of oil would mean a saving of only $488.

DEFINITE ACTION POSTPONED.

Important Matter Held Up by Bankers
Until Meeting in Los Angeles
in October.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 4.— Members of the executive council of the American Bankers' Association in session here today refused to take definite action on the proposition to segregate the assets of national banks and Trust companies and place
such accounts under the same restrictions now thrown around deposits in savings banks.

Opponents of the measure claimed that such action would tie up millions of dollars of interest bearing deposits in foreign banks in such manner as to force their use for only specific purposes and take the money out of the regular channels of loan trade. The measure was tabled, but it is expected to come up at the American Bankers' convention in Los Angeles in October.
The executive council went on record
as in favor of a big expedition to celebrate the opening of the Panama canal in 1915.

BIG STENOGRAPHER'S FEE.

John D. Ryan Sued for Two Hundred and Fifty-two Thousand Dollars.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
NEW YORK, May 4.—John D. Ryan, president of the Amalgamated Copper Company, has been sued in the Supreme Court of this city for what he claims is the largest stenographer's fee
on record. The amount is $252,000.

The claimant is William W. Johnstone, who was Ryan's stenographer and confidential secretary in 1904. He claims that he assisted Ryan in a confidential capacity in getting control of F. Augustus Heinze's copper interests in Butte, Mont., and through his efforts in February, 1906, Ryan and Thomas F. Cole secured control of Heinze's property. Ryan in his answer declares Johnstone was employed simply as a stenographer and did not perform any important task.

dred Lives.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
HALIFAX, N. S., May 4.—The schooner Hazelwood arrived here yesterday from Barrington, N. S., with a cargo of material from the steamer
Hungrarian, which was wrecked in February, 1860, with a loss of 400 lives.
United States and English silver coins have been found covered with rust, but otherwise in good condition after half a century in the water. The articles recovered have been eagerly sought by souvenir hunters. Divers are still working on the wreck.

MAY DAY AT WELLESLEY.

California Girls Are Prominent in the Revels of Massachusetts College.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WELLESLEY, Mass., May 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The May Day revels
at Wellesley College, twice postponed, took place today in defiance of the rain. Showers drove the revelers into the big gymnasium. Here the crowning of the May queen, Miss Mary E.
Cott of Los Alamos, Colo., was carried out with pretty ceremonies.

Lively dances of the old English May Day and rollicking stunts were rendered and the revels of the May queen Elizabeth Heim, 12, of No. 2653 Ellendale
Place, and Sarah R. Clark, 12, of No. 241 Westmoreland Place, Los Angeles; Edith Wills, 12, of Hollywood, and Ruth Edwards of No. 919 Cajon street, Redlands, were dressed as little boys and girls, wearing short dresses, and childish hats. They carried Teddy bears.

Immense feasts of roasts were served about the Maypole, which was set up in the center of the gymnasium.
Not a few sore limbs are the result of the secret stunts in the gymnasium.
Tonight the faculty was spreaded.

NATIONALITIES CLAMOR FOR RIGHTS IN RUSSIA.

Premier's Circular Prohibiting the Public from Using Any Other Than the Russian Language Causes Much Unpleasantness—Dowager Empress
Marie Champions Malcontents.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PETERSBURG (Russia) May 4.
—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Premier Stolypin's circular, prohibiting the public from using any other language than Russian, is causing a great stir throughout the empire, and the different nationalities are clamoring for their rights. Among them are 15,000, 000 Poles, 24,000,000 Little Russians,
2,800,000 Letts, 2,000,000 Georgians,
2,000,000 Armenians and 20,000,000 Mus-suls and Tartars. All these races are forbidden to form societies, to speak their own language or to be represented in the schools.

It is a remarkable fact in connection with this agitation that the Dowager Empress Marie is championing the cause of the malcontents. The government is showing much uneasiness,
as the suppression of their languages is not the only cause for a revolt of the nationalities.

The attempt to crush the autonomy
of Finland and the unprecedented activity of the "Black Gang" also are leading to dissatisfaction.

M. Stolypin's policy is gravely distrusted by certain members of the Imperial family, and the governmental press appears to be in a quandary as to which side to take.

The Novoe Vremya and the Russia
deplore the adverse foreign sentiment that has been aroused, hinting that King Edward has advised the Czar to change his policy in Finland.

BODY BURIED IN QUICKLINE.

Kenosha, Wis., Police Puzzled Over Mystery of Secret Grave Unconcovered by Sower Diggers.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
CHICAGO, May 4.—A feather bed,
a roll of canvas, a silver crucifix and a wisp of bright red hair, are relied upon by the police to help solve the mystery of the slaying of a man whose body was found buried in quicklime under a shack in Elizabeth street, Kenosha, Wis., yesterday.

Workmen engaged in digging a sewer trench under the shack struck into the secret grave. The lime had eaten away nearly all the evidence of crime.
Before burial, the body had been covered with lime and carefully wrapped in the canvas.

After lowering the body into the grave, the slayers also had thrown in his outer garments, and on top of them the feather bed. Whether the man was slain in the shack, which is now untenanted, or was killed at some distance away and carried to the hidden burial place, the police do not know.

One of the first clues involved a man and a woman, who rented the Elizabeth street shack about six months ago. They came from Chicago, or said they did. They bought several pieces of second-hand furniture, but sent it back to the store after a few days, and disappeared.

Another clue involved the unexplained disappearance of Jorgen Fred-son, a farmer of Brighton, Wis., last January.

LOSES SUIT TO BREAK WILL.

California Woman, Who Claimed to Be

Missouri, Defeated.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MONTGOMERY, Mo., May 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Emma J.
Hamill of California lost the suit she brought in the Circuit Court here today to break the will of Gibson Dickey, farmer and stock man, who died on his farm near Wellsville, Mo., leaving land and money in the bank.
She alleged she was the daughter of wife No. 1, who died in California, May 20, 1885, and that he

You MUST have abiding faith in your Clothier. But you SHOULD select only a Clothier worthy of that faith. The buying of men's clothes may be likened to the purchase of a piano; the finished case of the instrument hides either perfect inner construction or worthless rubbish. With clothes, outward style may be pleasing, yet a few wearings may disclose defects utterly fatal to shapeliness or satisfactory service. But in either instance you buy on faith. Why not eliminate ALL CHANCES by putting your trust only in that name which has a reputation—and a time-honored one—behind it?

many politicians, looking beyond the moment, are asking what angle the struggle will take in the next Republican national convention.

Meanwhile the Democrats in both houses are looking on with a "Go it, husband, go it, bear" expression.

They say that "whichever loses, we win," or, as Senator Bailey put it the other day on the floor, "the only policy we have in this affair is to keep both of you fellows irritated."

Majority Leader Seneca E. Payne of New York sounded the only optimistic note that could be heard in a canvass of the House.

"I have been seen or heard anything on the House side which indicates a great split in the party," said Mr. Payne. "Have you?" he inquired, with a smile, and the fellows carrying fellows in the Senate are unduly alarmed."

On the other hand, Representative Vreeland of New York, one of the ultra-conservatives, said: "This insurgency is not becoming serious. It is already serious. If a division like this in the party continues, it is bound to become irreparable. If it existed only in Congress it might be patched to together, but it pervades every State and district no amity can come of it."

INSURGENCY IS ANTI-TAFT.

Representative Needham, a conservative, said:

TEMPERATIONS OF CHILDREN.

Reports Made at Meeting of Humane Society.

Need Shown for Officer to Work at Night.

Proposes to Build Home for Little Ones.

On a working basis of $5000 a year, the Los Angeles Humane Society for Children has accomplished so much toward reclaiming minors that the reports read at the annual meeting, which was held in the banquet room at the Alexandria Hotel last night, seem to apply to an institution much more heavily endowed. It was a large gathering and an enthusiastic one, and

STATE LAWMAKERS SUMMONED
BEFORE CHICAGO GRAND JURY.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
CHICAGO, May 4.—"I believe fifty per cent. of the seats in the United States Senate can be said practically to have been purchased."
This statement was made here today by former United States Senator William E. Mason, in the course of an interview in which he urged the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. A morning paper quotes Senator Mason as saying discussed the so-called Lorimer "slush fund." The three Legislators, all of whom are Democrats, said they were present in answer to telegrams from the State's Attorney's office. Tiptott and Shepard voted for Lorimer, but Laley held out for the Democratic candidate, Stringer.

Shepard is one of those alleged by White to have been at the Southern Hotel, St. Louis, when the "jack pot" composed of miscellaneous bribes was disbursed.

DISCIPLINING CONDUCTORS.

Pacific Electric Officials Cause Arrest of One Accused of Not Turning in Found Property.

Officials of the Pacific Electric Railway company took yesterday a downward step up the disciplinary ladder among interurban conductors of failing to turn in property which is left on the cars by absent-minded persons. As a result of their determination to instill honesty into their employees, M. Cook, a conductor on a Long Beach car, is in trouble.

F. H. Reynolds found a grip containing children's clothing when he left the car. He reported the fact to the company. No such grip was found by the next conductor, J. J. Delivies. Delivies went to work on the case and says they learned that Cook had a satchel similar to the one described by Reynolds, in his car when he left his run. They declare they found Reynolds's grip scattered in Cook's room.

Asst. Dist. Atty. McComas issued a complaint against Cook with petty larceny. He was arrested and taken before Justice Ling. He pleaded not guilty, and was released on $1000 bail tomorrow. He could not furnish the money and was compelled to go to jail.

Railway detectives declare that there have been a number of complaints from passengers who leave various articles, ranging from suit cases to tooth-brushes, on the cars. In the majority of cases nothing is heard of the lost property.

While admitting that it is probable that some of the property has been forgotten are taken by other passengers, it is their opinion that in many instances the conductors merely appropriated the property.

They have determined to prosecute any of the employees who are caught in slaverly in the hope that it may serve as a warning to the unscrupulous to be more honest.

reference to the acts of the spurious Rohrbacher, and in it she seemed highly indignant that he should be masquerading as her husband. She stated in this letter that she had written to her husband, who went to Bellingham, acquainting him with the facts of the spurious Rohrbacher, and that he would write to Mrs. Calender, but when seen yesterday Mrs. Calender had received no word from her brother-in-law.

COMPLICATING.

The publisher of the newspapers which employs Rohrbacher telegraphs that he is above suspicion, and that his name has previously been assumed by another man. It is admitted, however, that Rohrbacher's business as a publicity writer takes him frequently from home. But the idea is scoffed at that he should have gone to Arizona, connected himself as secretary with the Chamber of Commerce, and married another woman. The fact that the second Mrs. Rohrbacher came from Spokane, where the real Rohrbacher is well known, and that she left Globe for Bellingham, where it is admitted that Rufus C. Rohrbacher is at present, complicates the mystery.

The Federal census, which is almost completed, will give Los Angeles an official population of 300,000.

The figures may be slightly below this approximation, or slightly above; but the best information at hand shows 200,000 as being close to the government estimate.

While the enumeration will close officially at midnight tonight, the totals will not be made up until tomorrow. An immense amount of work is involved in the preparation of the returns by the various canvassers. All errors must be detected and rectified before the sheets are forwarded to Census Director Durand at Washington.

Reports from the canvassers of all the reports from Los Angeles for several days.

Bert L. Farmer, supervisor of this city and county, has been sending on reports from the canvassers according to the time consumed in checking up districts and withholding reports until the districts have been thoroughly canvassed. This has caused some delay the past few days. The totals of the enumeration of April 30 are expected to be ready tomorrow. Another batch of reports left here yesterday.

ABOUT NINETY PER CENT.

Farmer believes that the enumeration has been a representative one. He says it is impossible to secure all the names of Angelenos, but thinks that the census will cover at least 90 per cent of the population. The census system employed by the head bureau at Washington, he does not know the exact details of, but he thinks he is able to make a pretty good guess, if the rules of the department did not force him.

He has just received a telegram from Census Director Durand, which emphatically states that no information or estimates regarding the population of Los Angeles are to be given out at the local office.

The Washington bureau is deluged with requests for information and estimates of the population of various cities. Farmer does not believe that any attention will be paid to these inquiries, but he has furnished summaries of population will be issued late in the summer. But few persons have waited several months before learning what the official population of their home city is. After the energetic campaign of the past few days, the census has been intensely interested in knowing what position Los Angeles will occupy on Uncle Sam's list of cities.

"The census will stand good for the next ten years."

The count for the past three or four days has been slow, and it is not probable that more than 10,000 or 12,000 names have been added. Much of the delay is due to the fact that in many districts there were scattering names to be secured, but the bulk of the enumerating was finished last week.

WELL UP SATURDAY NIGHT.

According to the best information obtainable, the census up to last Saturday night showed a count of about 200,000. The figures were very close at that time, but Supervisor Farmer obtained five days of grace upon his representation that the enumeration was complete.

The additional time has been well spent in hunting up persons who were overlooked or otherwise missed by the canvassers. The system of going back a second or third time to a house has resulted in a more nearly complete count. The family would be away, or the one at home would be unable to give the required information, at the first visit.

The lists of uncounted persons supplied by the canvassers are being filled by the postoffice and the Chamber of Commerce have kept a list of persons who have been missed in some cases, it was found that the necessary information had been supplied by the Chamber of Commerce. It is now the knowledge of the party making the complaint. But most of the complaints are found to be unfounded.

It is estimated that the activity of Postmaster Harrison and Assistant Postmaster Dishman has resulted in about 10,000 names being added.

The carriers proved their interest in the canvass by bringing in the names of persons who were overlooked by the carriers who were not counted by the Federal forces. The carriers left blanks at these places and later collected them after the census was closed.

POSTMASTER'S ESTIMATE.

"The Federal census will, in my opinion, show the population of Los Angeles to be approximately 300,000," Postmaster Harrison declared yesterday afternoon. "This estimate is based upon a comparison of the postal business of this city with that of cities of similar size and population. It is shown by the census of ten years ago to have about that population. I am not sure, however, that it is rather under what the official returns will show than over it—but I believe it will not be many thousands out of the way."

"Those of us who were here ten years ago will remember the keen disappointment of the census of 1890, when it was announced that Los Angeles had a population of 100,000. I am sure that the building fond but false hopes that the count would place us in at least the 150,000 class."

There is a large number of people who will probably be disappointed this year, because they are too sanguine and in their estimation the census will show that unless the census shows a total of at least 350,000, it will be because many thousands of people have been overlooked.

Every one who is interested in the business done by the postoffice, and mindful of the fact that Los Angeles has a larger population than any other city in the area, is of the opinion that 300,000 will be found to be nearer the official count than 200,000.

"Despite the fact this the official time for taking the census has about expired, there is yet time for the counting of the census. There are still relatively few persons who have not yet been listed. Apathy with reference to such a matter as this is entirely unnecessary. It is the duty of every citizen owes to the city, the State and the country, it is to see that the census is taken as soon as when a government census is taken."

INTERESTS THE PEOPLE.

"The importance of the census and particularly of getting as full a count as possible cannot be overestimated. Upon the official total will depend several of the most important interests of the people are directly interested. In the State it means a difference in the legislative apportionment of the State and county. Upon that classification certain very important laws are enacted. The apportionment of the State, and this may result in another Congressmen being given this section.

Every person has a postoffice standpoint—and every person is interested in securing the best possible collection and delivery of the mails—it means that for the next year the postoffice will be a better office and allowance for clerks, carriers, and other employees, will be largely based upon the official population of Los Angeles."

A link in an "endless-prayer chain" was remorselessly snapped by Postmaster Harrison yesterday. He was advised that some unidentified religious group had petitioned for the course around the country. The fraud order issued at Washington some time ago against a similar "prayer chain" applies in the present case. The postman in the letter that was intercepted yesterday made the following:

"Oh, Lord Jesus, we implore Thee to bless all mankind, keep us from evil by Thy precious blood and take away all our sins. Amen."

If the writer were content to send the above to some friend, there would be no complaint. The spirit of the letter is good. But the postmaster said the letter contains the objectionable part.

"Copy this and see what will happen," the writer states. "It is said he who will not copy this prayer will meet with some misfortune, and those who do copy it will receive great joy beginning the day it is received will on the ninth day receive some great joy."

If the identity of the originator of the "endless prayer" is discovered, he or she will not "receive great joy" because the postal authorities begin to get busy.

A series of letters of this description soon becomes an enormous burden on the postoffice. Thousands of letters multiply until tens of thousands are being carried from place to place.

When the former "prayer chain" was located in Los Angeles about two years ago, several bushels of letters were found. Some were destined for the dead-letter office at Washington. A fraud order soon put a stop to the circulation of the letters. Here, they were held up as a warning to others.

The threat contained in the letters directed at Harrison was that the department legal cause for refusing to handle the letters. To assert that some dire calamity will come upon those who do not copy the prayer is a part in spreading the message is nothing less than intimidation, though it is not the purpose of the letter for this purpose. The letter closes with these instructions:

"Do not break the chain. Copy this letter and send it to a different person each day. Make a wish while writing. Be sure you make the same wish each day. On the ninth day, your wish will come true. Do not sign your name."

Any one with a leaning toward the occult and the idea of a question mark figure out that nine times nine times nine, etc., will soon reach an astonishing figure, and spread dismay among the hard-working postal clerks.

DESPERATE STRUGGLE.

HER BOATMAN DIES WHILE SHE SAVES.

TWO Los Angeles women and their boatman were almost drowned off Catalina Tuesday afternoon, after their launch had been capsized by the waves, and one of the women is still unconscious. After struggling for hours in the rough waters, the trio reached some miles from Avalon. The unconscious woman was carried to a deserted cabin in the hills of the lathmus by her two worn and weary companions, where the discovery of a telephone gave them the opportunity to send word to Avalon for assistance, which reached them between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday morning.

The women were Mrs. Ed G. Hookstratten, wife of the president of the cigar company that bears his name, with headquarters at No. 356 South Spring street, and Mrs. J. B. Wells, her sister-in-law. Wells is also engaged in the cigar business.

The boatman was Billy Martin, who conducts a delicatessen establishment at Catalina, where he has been renting boats for many years.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning, in a precarious condition. She was brought to Los Angeles about last evening and immediately removed to the Hookstratten residence at 356 Lenox avenue. Dr. W. T. McArthur was at once summoned and he called in another physician to assist him.

Mrs. Hookstratten accompanied her sister-in-law, but, beyond a number of first aid remedies, was helpless in struggling through the heavy mountain brush and rocks, she is none the worse physically for her harrowing experience.

The two women went to Catalina for the benefit of their health. Mrs. Hookstratten had been suffering from a slight cold, and to avoid a mistake a little outing by her physician. Mrs. Wells, who is a bride of only three months, accompanied her. They decided on their unhappy fishing expedition Tuesday morning, and shortly after noon were on the ocean in care of Boatman Martin. Something went wrong with the launch about an hour after they had started.

To add to their predicament the sea became rough and heavy, so that the launch was tossed about. At first they found that he could not manage the boat, and he tried to row it ashore. But Mrs. Hookstratten assisted him and they were making fair progress, but a few distant shores when the oar operated by one of the women broke and she fell overboard. At first she did not know, and in a moment the trio were struggling in the ocean. Mrs. Hookstratten being an expert swimmer, did not lose her self-possession, but her friend was less fortunate.

Mrs. Hookstratten and Martin succeeded in reaching Mrs. Wells and placed her in a position so she could rest upon the overturned launch, but from time to time she was washed away. These frequent submergings finally rendered her unconscious, and Mrs. Hookstratten, who was a swimmer, and the dauntless boatman were forced to begin the slow and painful fight to reach the wrecked launch.

Do what they could, they could not bring the launch back to shore. The seas, and so they carried her to what they considered the most advantageous place to start a fire. Up about 500 feet altitude they described a cabin and found, and in it some matches. A fire was started as soon as telephonic communication had been made with Avalon and a party of rescuers reached the place just before daylight. Mrs. Wells remained unconscious all the time.

As soon as the identity of the women had been established, a dispatch was sent to Mr. Hookstratten directing him to go at once to Avalon on an important errand.

HIGH TIDE ON REGISTRATION

SAN FRANCISCO 'WAY BEHIND IN THE RACE.

Los Angeles County Listing Nearly Three Vols to One Compared With Northern Metropolitan Preponderance of Republican Sentiment Manifested in Both Places.

Almost three times as many voters
have been registered in Los Angeles county, since the opening of the new Great Register on January 1, as in San Francisco county during the same period.

This tremendous difference in registration is apt to cause a political sensation, as it cannot be explained simply by showing the wonderful growth
in population of this city and county.
While there is no longer any question of Los Angeles county having the largest population of either San Francisco county or any other in the State, it is not so overwhelming as might be judged from the comparison of registration figures.

The registration in this county,
as shown by the official records in the Courthouse yesterday morning, was 79,702. Of this number 83,858 were registered from this city, and 25,844 from the country sections. To these figures may be added about one hundred additional figures registered yesterday.

The figures from San Francisco are astonishingly small in comparison.
Saturday last, the total enrollment
there was exactly 22,461. This was for

There is no question that Rohrabacher, the newspaper man, was in Seattle from April to September last year, as Mrs. E. G. Callender, whose sister married Rohrabacher, was visiting there during the same period. In September the Rohrabachers went to Tacoma, and a telegram to The Times
from Bellingham, Wash., states that Rohrabacher had been out of the State for months; further, that he is the only R. C. Rohrabacher known to him in the United States.

Rufus C. Rohrabacher is described by Mrs. E. Callender, his wife, as follows: Age, 35 years; height, five feet, nine inches; eyes, deep blue; hair, dark brown, parted in the middle;
face, smooth-shaven.

R. C. Rohrabacher of Globe, Ariz., is described as follows: Age, about 40; height, six feet, one inch; eyes, faded blue; deep set; hair, slightly streaked with gray; face, smoothshaven.

Rufus C. Rohrabacher is married and has one child, Marie, aged 12 years. R. C. Rohrabacher of Globe also has a wife. He was married while in the Russian army, and is now declaring she had received a telegram that her brother was seriously ill in Bellingham, Wash. It seems singular that the Rufus C. Rohrabacher also is in Bellingham on business.
About the time that Mrs. Rohrabacher declined in response to the telegram,
her husband was in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Rufus C. Rohrabacher is about 33 years of age, five feet, seven inches tall, with gray eyes and blonde hair. The other Mrs. Rohrabacher's telegraphed description is a slender woman, 30 years of age, about five feet tall, with yellowish-brown hair, large brown eyes with heavy lashes, and a turned-up nose. She is said to have come to Globe from Spokan.

Mrs. Callender has received a letter

and for Lot at Ottawa Street for Apartment Site.

Mrs. Constance D. Simpson of New York City has purchased from Dr. W. L. Graves, through the agency of Bryan & Bradford, the property at the southwest corner of Figueroa and Ottawa streets. The consideration is reported to be $100,000. The old frontage of ninety-three feet on Figueroa by 171 feet on Ottawa, and the improvements consist of a three-story frame house of twenty-one rooms. The lot is one of the oldest of the old mansions of the city, was purchased by Dr. Graves in 1888, at a time of considerable boom, for $10,000. The house is known as the "corner of Ottawa and Pearl," the latter having been the name formerly attached to Figueroa street.

The new owner, president of the American metropolis, is a large holder here and a firm believer in the future of Los Angeles and Southern California. She is Mrs. Mark G. Jones, president of the Merchants Bank and Trust Company, and of Mrs. J. R. Frankish. It is Mrs. Simpson's intention to eventually improve the site with a large apartment hotel at which time the present house will be moved to the rear of the lot to face on the new street.

L. R. Conklin, with Bryan & Bradford, acted as agent in the transfer of the property to Mrs. Constance D. to Jennie E. White of the property at No. 830 South Olive street. The lot, which is improved with a small house on the corner, is 100 feet wide and the value was $40,000 cash. Mrs. White will build a large and substantial building on the site if she can secure a suitable tenant. The value of the Ottawa street property is reported by the agents in the above sales.

ORDER STOPS CONSTRUCTION.

Paving Between Tracks on Streets Ends.

City Officials Insist Upon Lighter Pavement.

Letter of Specifications Is the Cause of Delay.

Every foot of street railway paving in the city is held up indefinitely, and there will be no construction work completed or new work begun until the question of paving specifications is definitely decided.

City Attorney Hewitt has been instructed to draw up an ordinance for presentation to the Council, and a special meeting may be held this week to enable the railway side of the question to be heard.

The result of this legal tangle is that block after block of street construction is open, and the railway labor gangs have been taken off the streets. The work that is left open includes nearly a mile of Los Angeles Pacific construction on Sunset boulevard, two miles of Pacific Electric of line construction on the West Adams street branch, two blocks of Pacific Electric construction on East Ninth street from Main to Santa Fe, four blocks of Figure-street construction from Second to Sixth streets, and that part of Lake Shore avenue between First and Temple streets.

In addition to this the Los Angeles Railway Company has stopped plans for the paving of streets throughout the city, where the municipal part of the work has been done.

If the city's final action is to force the absolute living up to the specifications governing street railway paving, Broadway, which will have to be torn up within thirty days, will remain practically impassable for six months.

MAY CLOSE BROADWAY. This announcement was made yesterday afternoon by Los Angeles Railway officials, who stated that the laying of tracks on Broadway was to be started within the month. According to the old methods of paving, the materials were mixed at one place and delivered hot to the spot in wagons.

The new method will require the mixing of concrete upon the streets with the concrete blocks and the total abandonment of at least one line of car service for fully three weeks following the completion of the pavement laying.

This long abandonment is made necessary to give time for the concrete to set. If the cars were run over the line sooner the concrete would crack and the work become worthless.

Under the old form of paving the streets would not be blocked at any time, and the car service could follow the laying of the tracks at once.

The whole question came up last Friday, when the city served notice on the Los Angeles Pacific, the Pacific Electric and the Los Angeles Railway companies that the letter of the law in regard to street paving must be enforced.

The Los Angeles Pacific was at the time pushing the construction of a mile of unfinished work on Sunset boulevard. The letter of the law was in and all that was required was to put on the top layer. The company asked permission to complete this work and was refused.

WORK ORDERED STOPPED. The same thing held true with the Pacific Electric's work on Ninth street east of Main, when W. M. Humphreys and Homer Hamlin, accompanied by two policemen, ordered the work of construction discontinued.

Permission was asked to fill in the holes where the rail joints were welded, but this also was refused and the street is now open.

Pacific Electric officials said yesterday: "It is impossible for us to comply with the letter of the law. In the first place the city payments are made on a team traffic and not for car service. We must build much heavier tracks than the street department, to enable our lines to operate."

This question came up in the old Council and was voted into conference. After we explained the situation the question was dropped and we were given permission to go ahead.

The city payments are made on a team traffic and not for car service. This gives an eight-inch pavement.

The pavement in use along the Pacific Electric is twenty inches thick. Of this, nine inches is crushed rock with a three-inch cushion of crushed screenings. On top of this we place six inches of concrete base made with an asphalt binder, and the whole is capped by two inches of asphalt.

HEAVY PAVEMENT. "If we put in the tracks according to the city specifications, we would have a six-inch rail on top of a six-inch tie. This would give us for the base of our tie fully four inches of common earth, which would not hold our cars for thirty days. We must put in the crushed rock base before the track can be laid."

"The city specification does not call for the granite block or the bituminous brick with which we line the tracks. If we do not put them in the pavement would not last a month."

"The whole question rests, in our minds, between the use of concrete with an asphalt base, and concrete with cement base."

"We are forced to maintain our tracks and naturally will put in the best kind of track to save later expense. The city paving contracts let to the Fairchild-Gilmore-Wilton Company on Maple avenue cost the city 15 cents per foot. Our cost for paving averages 194 cents, outside the cost of track laying. Thus our work costs us the most money."

"Last year we spent $500,000 for paving, outside of track laying costs, and it will cost us more this year. We do not desire to put in track at this expense that will not last."

"The city paving cannot compare with ours yard for yard, and ours carries the greatest traffic. On the new Aliso street bridge we had to build the middle of the bridge much heavier than the city built the sides because of the heavy traffic. It is the same thing in this case."

"Another thing is the length of time the street is out of service, for on a concrete base we could not operate cars for fully three weeks after the tracks are laid."

SERVICE REQUIREMENTS. Los Angeles Pacific officials in discussing the work held up on Sunset boulevard said:

"The city requirements are for five inches of concrete, with a capping of three inches of asphalt macadam."

"Our work is twenty-four inches thick. We start with a foot of crushed rock, capped by six inches of screenings, on an asphalt base and finished off with six inches of asphalt macadam. This gives us a pavement

the entire city and county of San Francisco. A study of the registration showed that of the total number of persons, 15,972 registered as Republicans; 28,555 as Democrats; 1812 Union Labor, 192 Socialists, 32 Prohibitionists, 33 Good Government, and 633 "not stated."

A special dispatch to The Times last night stated that the total registration in the city was approximately 50,000. The figures show that the two parties, the Union Labor party following registration under false colors this time, together will have no State ticket in the field.

The difference in registration in the two cities is almost appalling. The only similarity at all is in the ratio of partisanship. Deputy Brown of the local registration office says that about 70 per cent. of the voters on the new Great Register are designated as Republicans; 30 per cent. as Democrats, and the remaining 10 per cent. among the "not stated" group.

"That there is nothing unusual with the registration at this time at the present time, is shown by comparison with the records of two years ago, when the last Great Register was started. The figures show that on May 3, 1908, there were 70,058 voters registered in Los Angeles county; 45,218 residents of the city, and 21,842 outside.

The chief rush at the registration office is over for the present, but there is an average of more than 100 in each day. It is estimated that before the general State election next November, there will be upward of 110,000 registered in the city, and an increase of more than 10,000 over last year.

It is too late for those who have not registered this year to do so in time to vote at the primary election for City Councilmen on June 2. Transfers from the register in the city will close this week, the last day in which to qualify for the vote June 2. This does not mean that a voter cannot register at the present time or after Saturday, but refers merely to the qualifying for the June primary vote.

The transfer of the August primary will close July 27, for both new registration and transfer. For the election in November, registration will close September 25, and for transfer, on October 13. The general State election comes on Tuesday, November 8.

The city primary next month is the last time that any old registration will be used. For the August primaries only the Great Register of this year will be used. Deputy Brown emphasizes this statement, as there have been reports to the contrary in circulation.

Thin, Weak Blood During Development May Cause a Life of Misery and Suffering Which Can Be Avoided by the Timely Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

At no time in her life does a woman stand in greater need of pure red blood, and the strength which it alone can give her, than when she is developing into womanhood. Many are confined within doors, are overworked, do not have enough nourishing food, and are depressed by worry and cares. All of these conditions quickly impoverish the blood and are among the most common exciting causes of sickness in growing girls.

If at any time during her development a girl finds that her strength is failing and she is becoming pale and nervous, has no ambition and is languid, it is a certain sign that her blood is failing to meet the demands made upon it because it is impure and thin.

To insure perfect development and health, steps must be taken at once to strengthen the system by purifying and purifying the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do this so well and have cured so many cases of anemia and chlorosis that they may justly be called a specific for these common diseases of girlhood.

A CURE AT LONG BEACH. A School Girl Was Thought to Be Going into Consumption.

Miss Thelma Holland, of No. 1162 Atlantic avenue, Long Beach, Cal., says:

"When I was eight years old I became very anemic, although I had always been weak and sickly. We moved to California during my sickness and I was so thin and pale that people thought I had consumption and was unable to stand any exertion. I was short of breath and had no ambition and was always tired. I was nervous and my sleep was broken by the most fearful dreams. My heart was out of order. My stomach was all wrong. I was unable to go to school only about three months out of nine and one year was out of school entirely. I was often confined to bed for two or three weeks."

"A friend recommended the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after a fair trial I began to get better. I kept on using the pills until I was completely cured. I now feel strong and well and am able to stand any exertion. I recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because they cured me after three years of sickness and after my doctor had said he could not help me."

"While I was living in Victoria, B. C., several years ago, and I began to suffer from anemia because of too close confinement in doors. I became very pale and weak and could not walk any distance without being short of breath. My appetite was very poor and I had dizzy spells. I was subject to chills and my extremities were cold. I also suffered from pain in my head. I had been sick for a long time before I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. While I was on the second box I noticed that they were helping me. My appetite increased, and I felt better every day. I gave the pills a good trial and was cured. I am now strong and healthy and I am able to do all the work of my cure by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as it may be the means of restoring the health of many young girls who are suffering from this common disease."

TAINTED CASH BREAKS BOND.

Wife Wants More of Hubby's Lottery Money.

Suit for Maintenance Being Heard in Court.

Bitter Family Feud Raging Among Children.

The suit for maintenance, at the rate of $1000 a month, brought by Louise Brunner of Alhambra, against her husband, Herman Brunner, who, before he was driven out of the business by the government, accumulated a fortune dealing in Louisiana, Mobile and Honduras lottery tickets, is come out from St. Louis to make a short visit with the family. Mrs. Brunner, in her evidence in regard to the Alhambra home, said it was purchased by Brunner in 1906, for $40,000, and consisted of twenty-one acres of land, the most of it cultivated to oranges. This is one of the pieces of property that Brunner alleges his wife purchased in trust for herself, while she sets out, and so testified yesterday, that the Alhambra property, together with the places owned by her in Los Angeles, Hollywood and elsewhere, and in her name, were purchased by her husband and presented to her.

It was also known by her evidence that Mrs. Brunner had considerable property in the way of stocks in her possession, including holdings of Nasau Electric, Kansas City Telephone and St. Louis Catering Company stock, all of which she was paying to say nothing of a number of shares in local banks.

It was shown by her evidence that the amount of property in her name and bought with money furnished by Brunner, aggregated more than $150,000, the balance of $15,000 being covered by her stock holdings. It was also in evidence that it cost $300 a month to pay the expenses of the Alhambra establishment, and Mrs. Brunner alleged that her income from her property was not sufficient to meet that charge. Questioned in regard to the income of her husband in the lottery business,

Mrs. Louise Brunner,

down to the brass tacks in Judge Crowe's court.

For months the case has been hanging fire in Judge Houser's court, and when the process servers were not busy chasing the aged husband up and down the coast, between Los Angeles and San Diego, they were pounding on the door of the magnificent Brunner home in Alhambra, trying to serve some sort of a document upon Mrs. Brunner. Postponement after postponement was allowed, but finally, the much-needed depositions were taken and some progress was made.

Then another delay ensued, on account of the fact that the papers in the case disappeared, but they were finally as mysteriously returned, and the case got under way again.

A move looking toward another postponement was made when the matter was called up yesterday, a motion being made to change the form of the complaint, and instead of asking for a permanent allowance of all money of $1000 a month, sue for a straight divorce. Objection was made to this change of front without any notice on the part of Mrs. Brunner, counsel, and Judge Crowe refused to allow the shift at this time, although it was agreed and understood that the motion might be made later on. It was argued that the testimony would be the same in either action.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER.

Mrs. Brunner, the plaintiff, was on the stand most of the day, in her direct and cross-examination, but late in the afternoon one of the daughters, Miss Theresa Brunner, who sides with her mother in the present quarrel, testified in regard to overt acts of violence on the part of the father.

The Brunners were married in St. Louis, in March, 1881, when Mrs. Brunner was but 16 years of age. At the time Brunner was 23. The couple are the parents of five children, Hermine, born in 1881, now the wife of L. D. Waite, who resides near Alhambra, to whose home the father fled when he alleges he was driven from the Alhambra home; Theresa, born 1884; Julia, 1891; Louise, 1892, and Frederick, 1895. Hermine and Julia are not with the mother.

The allegations of the petition of the wife allege, and she yesterday testified to repeated acts of cruelty on the part of her husband. She declared that in March, 1908, he threatened to run a butcher knife through her; that in July, 1908, he threw a lamp at her, and on several occasions before he left the home in June, 1909, he made many remarks concerning her lack of chastity.

On one occasion he told one of his daughters that he had dreamed his wife was about to get married again, and when asked who she was to wed, the old man said that she had been spending his money running around with her alleged paramour, a young man whom Mrs. Brunner testified had come out from St. Louis to make a short visit with the family.

Questioned in regard to the income of her husband in the lottery business,

come out from St. Louis to make a short visit with the family.

Mrs. Brunner, in her evidence in regard to the Alhambra home, said it was purchased by Brunner in 1906, for $40,000, and consisted of twenty-one acres of land, the most of it cultivated to oranges. This is one of the pieces of property that Brunner alleges his wife purchased in trust for herself, while she sets out, and so testified yesterday, that the Alhambra property, together with the places owned by her in Los Angeles, Hollywood and elsewhere, and in her name, were purchased by her husband and presented to her.

It was also known by her evidence that Mrs. Brunner had considerable property in the way of stocks in her possession, including holdings of Nasau Electric, Kansas City Telephone and St. Louis Catering Company stock, all of which she was paying to say nothing of a number of shares in local banks.

It was shown by her evidence that the amount of property in her name and bought with money furnished by Brunner, aggregated more than $150,000, the balance of $15,000 being covered by her stock holdings. It was also in evidence that it cost $300 a month to pay the expenses of the Alhambra establishment, and Mrs. Brunner alleged that her income from her property was not sufficient to meet that charge.
